

MONROE COUNTY Special Waste Clean-Up

Now is the time to rid your home and farm of hazardous and special wastes!

Saturday, October 1, 2016

8am – 2pm

at the

Monroe County Landfill, 20448 Junco Road, Norwalk, WI

* Open to all Monroe County Households. No commercial/industrial. ****

Acceptable Items at No Charge

Hazardous waste: lawn chemicals, household cleaners, insect sprays, paints, medications, compact fluorescent bulbs (cfl's), waste oil & oil filters, anti-freeze, rechargeable batteries, lithium & button batteries (hearing aid, camera etc.) small helium and LP tanks <20 lbs.

Acceptable items With Fees

AG PLASTICS ($49.00 per ton effective January 1, 2016)

Tires* @10¢ per pound, Appliances, TV's, computers, electronics @ $10.00 per item, fluorescent tubes @ 50 cents each*
$3 per HID lamp

*Tires and bulbs are rounded to the nearest dollar

We will not accept the following:

Explosives (shotguns shells, fireworks, gunpowder, etc.)

Radioactive materials

Garbage and large items (couches, chairs, demolition material)

Monroe County reserves the right to charge a fee for quantities of hazardous waste over 5 gallons or 50 lbs. Prices may be subject to change.

For more information please call the landfill office at: 608-269-8783

Directions to Junco Road, from Tomah, south on 131 west on CTH A 4.3 miles to Junco Road. From Sparta east on Hwy 16 south on CTH A follow CTH A 7.5 miles to Junco Road